

Job Announcement

Full-time Position: Co-Director of College Counseling

Expected Beginning Date: July 1, 2019

Application Deadline: February 1, 2019

Position Description

Head-Royce School, an independent co-educational day school in Oakland, California seeks dynamic and highly qualified candidates for the position of Co- Director of College and Academic Counseling. This is a full-time, 12 month position.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities include advising and supporting students in all aspects of the college admission process, writing recommendations, working with students individually and in small groups, building relationships with parents, and developing and maintaining relationships with colleges and universities. The Co-Director will help to further develop and run a college counseling program which will support and guide students throughout all four years of high school.

Qualifications

The successful candidate will possess excellent communication skills, a strong work ethic, and a desire to work with a diverse group of students and parents. An advanced degree and a minimum of ten years of experience in selective college admissions and/or college counseling are strongly preferred.

It is important that candidates possess the flexibility, energy, sense of humor and commitment to teamwork that life in an independent school requires. We seek someone who possesses both an appreciation for adolescents and a collaborative spirit.
